Make Your Next Event Exponential

About Sheri Riley, The Peace Activator™

I am an empowerment speaker, life strategist, award winning author, and founding partner of the global John Maxwell speaking, training, coaching team.

I work with individuals and companies on how personal development fuels productivity and professional growth.

I rose to the top of the entertainment industry and was miserable.

I have had the incredible opportunity to work with some of the top celebrities, CEOs and influencers of our lifetime, but it didn't make me happy. I got to the TOP in the entertainment industry, making 6 figures, unlimited expense account, traveling the world, and I was miserable. Not because I didn't love my job—I did—but I didn't have a good life.

Basically, I was spending 100% of my time on 10% of who I was.

So I resigned. I left my dream job at LaFace Records at the HEIGHT of my career. My family and friends thought I literally lost my mind. I knew something had to change—that I was meant for something bigger.

Featured in:

My journey of pursuing peace, choosing clarity, and living courageously

My NAACP Image Award nominated book, Exponential Living Living® - Stop Spending 100% of Your Time on 10% of Who You Are®, as well as my programs, are the guides for celebrities, athletes, corporate executives, entrepreneurs, high achievers, and all around busy people to not only have career success, but also a good life.

What I've Achieved (while keeping my own peace a priority)

I am a wife, mother, daughter, and I've been a corporate executive. I also served as Founder and Chief Partnership Strategist of GLUE® Inc, (glueinc.com) where I spent 17 years "developing profitable partnerships for products and personalities".

What Others Are Saying

Sheri has been an instrumental part of my life. Her support and guidance of my personal and professional growth helped mold me into the man and artist that I am today.

Usher Raymond IV, Entertainer, Philanthropist

In life you go through success and failure...ups and downs...but through it all you come away with certain truths. Those truths sometimes come in the form of a TRUE FRIEND. Someone you can turn to for honesty and loyalty. Sheri Riley represents these things to me. She has become one of my truths in my journey.

Scooter Braun, Founder & CEO of SB Project/Manager for Justin Bieber, Ariana Grande, Kanye West

Sheri Riley is a power-house!! Her engaging delivery captivates audiences and her words empower them. I've partnered with some of the most influential speakers in the world. This includes John Maxwell, Les Brown, Zig Ziglar, and Brian Tracy. Unique in their own voice, they all have an energy that connects from the stage and Sheri shares that special quality.

Paul Martinelli, President, The John Maxwell Team

Sheri Riley's talk at CVS Health made me really think about what my priorities are and what I have been wasting time on. I spoke with a number of colleagues and they couldn't stop saying how powerful the talk was and how much they learned from it.

Katherine K. Durant, Director, External Reporting CVS Health

The (Atlanta) Hawks hosted our 7th "Courageous Conversation". We invited Sheri Riley as our keynote speaker. In a powerful fireside chat, Sheri helped us understand 9 basic principles to achieving inner peace which will ultimately help us enhance our creative edge, sales, productivity, innovative thinking, and most importantly, fill the void.

Nzinga Shaw, SVP, Community & Chief Diversity & Inclusion Officer, Atlanta Hawks & Philips Arena
